

A WAR BREAKS OUT
IN SOUTH CAROLINATWO KILLED BY SPECIAL CON-STABLES.

The Battle a Severe One, and the Survivors Are Badly Wounded—No Evidence Against Them, They Are Discharged—Moonshine Whisky the Cause of a Bloody Affray.

Spartanburg, S. C., June 29.—Thursday night a fight took place on the Howard Gap road, about five miles from here. The constables learning that a load of whisky was coming from the direction of Polk county, sent out Constables Pettigrew of Fairfield and Toland and Byars of this county and a man named Stevens to intercept the wagon. They met it in the road near town and not far from the scene of the recent Pisgah fight. The constables divided their forces and made the attack in front and rear. One of them in front ordered a halt and surrender, stating that they were state officers. Some one in the wagon said, "All right," but before they had time to surrender a pistol was fired and Pettigrew fell. The fighting then became general. Jack Fisher and Bill Durham, of Tyron, N. C., were killed. Pettigrew was dangerously and Toland slightly wounded. The coroner's verdict was that Fisher and Durham came to their death by gunshot wounds at the hands of parties unknown to the jury. The constables refused to give testimony, and there were no other witnesses.

THE DENVER TROUBLE.

Whole Population of the City Excited and Indignant.

Denver, Col., June 29.—Rumors of lynching prevail, and there is no telling where the recent agitation concerning water rates will end. The greatest source of complaint is that the water company, which is a fusion of the bankrupt Denver Water Company and the Citizens' Water Company, demands that the consumers shall pay interest on $15,000,000 capital and bonds, when the plant only cost to construct a fifth of that sum and can be duplicated for $3,000,000. The majority of the present board of aldermen were elected to protect the people from rapacity of this corporation, and they have passed an ordinance giving the company still greater powers of extortion. This ordinance is a special order of business for this morning and there are already calls for a gathering of voters and taxpayers at the City Hall. The crowd will go well prepared and will not be again balked of their prey. On the other side, the police are determined and say that there will be no repetition of the Arata lynching that disgraced the city two years ago, but in the present state of feeling it is not probable any serious attempt would be made to protect the aldermen from the fury of the crowd. Popular feeling would not tolerate such interference, and if it should be attempted there would be a general massacre. The officers of the water company, who are accused of wholesale bribery, are also threatened, and are well guarded.

Gov. Hastings Hanged in Effigy.

Hazleton, Pa., June 29.—The more hot headed among the advocates of the bill for the creation of Quay county of parts of Luzerne and Schuylkill counties, and which was vetoed by Governor Hastings, are venting their indignation against the governor in a very outspoken way. At Freeland preparations were being made last night to burn Governor Hastings in effigy, but the town authorities removed the figure before the torch was applied to it. Early risers here this morning saw an effigy purporting to represent the governor hanging from a pole. A placard on the figure bore an offensive inscription. The figure was cut down by the authorities.

Confesses to Robbing Himself.

Goldthwaite, Texas, June 29.—Yesterday A. Lewis, a mail rider on the Goldthwaite star route, came hurrying into town to proclaim that he had been held up and robbed of mail by mounted robbers. The Sheriff and posse failed to find any evidence of any horse's presence other than that ridden by Lewis himself. He was searched, and a $1 bill and other evidence pointed to the fact that he was the robber. He finally confessed and was arrested.

Omaha at Last Has a Treasurer.

Omaha, Neb., June 29.—Mayor Bemis and the council are at last agreed on J. H. Dumont for city treasurer. Five times he sent to the council the name of nominees for the office and each nomination was turned down. Last night the mayor nominated Dumont, whose name had been sent to the council before, and the appointment was confirmed.

Schworskopf's Defalcation Settled.

Valparaiso, Ind., June 29.—The case of the city of Valparaiso vs. ex-City Treasurer George Schworskopf and his bondsmen, which has been on trial since Monday, has been withdrawn from the jury and submitted to the court. The bondsmen made a proposition to the council to settle the $12,000 defalcation for $8,000, which was accepted by a vote of 5 to 3, after a bitter fight.

Decision in Collima Case.

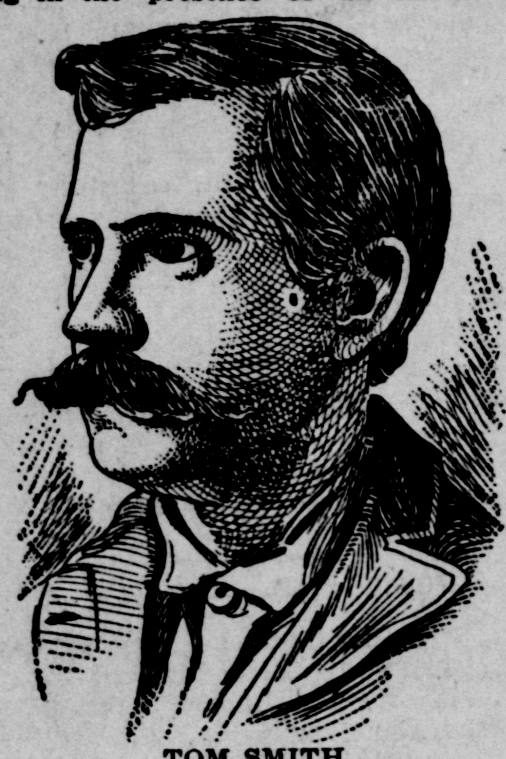

San Francisco, Cal., June 29.—The United States Local Inspectors of Steam Vessels Talbot and Phillips, yesterday gave their decision upon the loss of the Pacific Mail steamship Collima. The decision finds that the Collima was stanch and seaworthy, and that without the reports of Captain Taylor, his first officer, and the chief engineer, it is impossible to decide the true cause of the disaster.

thrang. People were camped along the river bank all night awaiting the event. The execution was public, the scaffold being erected in a hollow near the jail, and the view from the surrounding hills almost unobstructed. Smith made a speech from the scaffold.

No mountain desperado has killed more men in Kentucky than "Bad Tom" Smith. He also murdered Joe Hurt in 1883, Combs brothers and Eversole in 1888, Ambrose Amburg, Robin Cornell, Jacob McKnight, and Ed Campbell in 1889. On the scaffold Smith said he had been the hireling of B. F. French of the notorious French faction in every murder except that of Dr. Roder.

ADJOURN TO JULY 9.

Illinois Legislators Decide Upon a Long Recess.

Springfield, Ill., June 29.—In the house yesterday Kilcourse (Rep.) offered a resolution providing that when the two houses adjourned it would be to Tuesday July 9, at 10 o'clock. Mr. Novak (Dem.) offered an amendment that during the recess the members receive no pay. Mr. Kent (Rep.) made a point of order that the statutes provide that members shall receive pay only while actually in attendance, and that the amendment was out of order. The original resolution was adopted by a viva voce vote. Mr. Cochran (Rep.) presented the report of the committee to investigate the sufficiency of the tax levy, being a copy of the report adopted by the Republican caucus. It declares the tax levy sufficient to meet the appropriations, and recommends that no increase be made.

Mr. Merritt (Dem.) presented a minority report, declaring that there will be a deficit July 1, 1897, of $1,184,202. Mr. Lowenthal (Rep.) moved to lay the minority report on the table. The motion prevailed by a party vote and the majority report was then adopted by a party vote. Mr. Cochran (Rep.) moved that 5,000 copies of the majority report be printed. Mr. Crafts (Dem.) moved to amend by providing also for printing 5,000 copies of the minority report. The amendment was adopted and the motion prevailed. The house then adjourned to Tuesday, July 9.

HOW DA GAMA DIED.

Brave Ending to the Life Led by the Brazilian Admiral.

New York, June 29.—A special from Buenos Ayres says: "From one of the rebels who escaped capture by the government troops after the insurgent defeat near Santa Ana, Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, details of the last battle in which Admiral Da Gama took part and of his suicide have been secured. The admiral, at the head of a force of 400 men, was engaged by a brigade of government soldiers numbering 1,200. The battle lasted five hours and at least 300 men were killed or wounded. With a handful of men the admiral repulsed five charges of the government cavalry, but the struggle was hopeless and, seeing that all was lost Da Gama ordered a retreat and then cut his own throat. Da Gama's body was taken to Santa Ana by the government troops and there horribly mutilated. The throats of many of the captured rebels were cut by the victorious soldiers."

Triangulating the United States.

Washington, June 29.—Supt. Duffield, of the coast and geodetic survey, said that he was very hopeful that the present year would see the completion of the work of triangulating the continent from ocean to ocean. "When it is done," said Gen. Duffield, "we shall know how far it is from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean."

Port Townsend, Wash., June 29.—The steamer Chilcat from Juneau brings news of the disappearance of the steamer Chehalls. Early last week she sailed out of Juneau headed south, but inquiries at the ports on the way down failed to bring to light any news of the vessel. Much anxiety exists concerning her whereabouts.

PARNELL WAS RIGHT.

Policy of the Dead Leader to Be Adopted by the Irish Party.

London, June 29.—The Daily News says that John Redmond has issued a manifesto to the Irish people declaring that since Lord Rosebery took office the Irish question has been entirely shelved. The liberals quitted office without the slightest explanation to the Irish people and with neither a promise nor a guarantee for the uncertain future, nor a suggestion of an apology for the shameful past. The lesson was clear, distinct and emphatic that they must revert to Parnell's policy and have national representation independent of all English parties, having regard to Irish sentiment and Irish rights.

Take No Stand on Silver.

Logansport, Ind., June 29.—The Democratic editors of Indiana at their annual meeting held yesterday at Lake Maxinkuke did not commit themselves on the financial question. They took the ground that it was no occasion for the association to state its position on any public question; that there was no need to cross a stream before it was reached. The resolution was adopted without discussion or opposition. The free coinage men attempted to arrange for the calling of a state convention of silver men, but had not succeeded in securing enough signatures when the convention adjourned.

Lumbermen Have Been Cheated.

Stillwater, Minn., June 29.—The lumbermen of Stillwater are said to have been cheated out of $100,000 by fraudulent log measurements. Charles G. Goodrich has been arrested on a Grand Jury indictment for complicity in the alleged frauds. The method of tallying was to give the scale to a different mark from the one given by the scaler, thus defrauding owners out of thousands of feet of logs.

St. Charles, Mo., June 29.—Earl R. Britt, secretary of the silver conference held in this city last week, has received communications from the chairmen of fifty counties out of a total of 114 in Missouri, all but two of which are in favor of calling a state convention for the purpose of defining the position of the Democratic party on the silver question.

BUSINESS IN FAIRLY GOOD SHAPE.

J. J. Dan & Co's Report Shows a Satisfactory State of Things.

New York, June 29.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Business is better, although the crop outlook affecting prospects beyond the near future, is a little less distinct. There is more ground for doubt about winter wheat and cotton than a week ago, and thrashing receipts are comparatively low, although the prospects for spring wheat are exceedingly good. The price, a quarter of a cent lower for the week, is beyond mistake too low if the latest impressions of injury to winter wheat are correct. Receipts for the week are relatively small, but for four weeks have been 5,166,414 bushels, against 5,794,528 last year, while Atlantic exports, flour included, have been for four weeks, 4,912,723, against 7,444,002 bushels last year. Corn has declined a fraction and pork is steady."

"Cotton has fallen 3-16 to 7 cents in spite of reports of serious injury by rains in Texas and Louisiana. Speculation has even spread to the wool market, and with an advance of about 10 cents in prices, the sales have been the largest ever known for any week—4,017,900 pounds. In four weeks of June sales have been 16,132,465 domestic and 17,451,500 pounds foreign, while in 1892 they were 13,340,750 domestic and 10,427,500 foreign. A growing belief that the domestic clip is short and an idea that the coming London sales, beginning July 2, will show higher prices, have been more potent than a little increase in the manufacturing demand, and the price has risen at all markets."

"Copper has been strengthened by a large sale of Calumet and Hecla for export at 10 1/2 cents, which is now quoted, while tin is slow at $14.05, and lead at $3.27 1/2. Iron still advances."

"The half yearly report of failures next week will include about 6,900, against 7,039 for the first half of last year, and assets of about $88,000,000, against $101,578,152 last year. But for the Cordage concern, the aggregate would be nearly 23 per cent less than last year, and manufacturing liabilities will be about $40,000,000, against $41,378,120 last year, and trading $45,000,000, against $52,345,973 last year, while miscellaneous liabilities were only $2,700,000, against $7,856,072 last year. Failures for the past week have been 256 in the United States, against 214 last year, and twenty-two in Canada against thirty-five last year."

Stewart, who is associated with Sam Jones, the evangelist. Following the exercises a wonderful experience meeting was held, in which delegates from nearly every state in the union participated. During the recital of the experiences several of the delegates became so impressed with the fervor of the occasion that they shouted.

In spite of the vast crowd, Chattanooga was so well prepared for the coming and entertainment of the visitors that not one-fifth of her entertaining capacity has been exhausted. The residents report that they are not crowded in the least. This fact will be of interest in view of the approaching date for the park dedication.

The night meeting was the largest assemblage ever seen in the South. Missions was the subject under discussion, and able speeches were made.

IRRIGATION TRIED IN SPRING BROOK

TRUCK GARDENS RUN AT HIGH PRESSURE.

Foul Odors Come From the River Now That the Water Is Low—Hall Factory To Start—Work on the Bridge—Wooden Wedding—Social Notes.

A system of irrigation for truck gardens has been figured on for some time by a number of Spring Brook residents. It is now beginning to assume shape and plans are being drawn for trenches and for the location of a windmill upon B. Ludington's place on Jerome avenue. Mr. Ludington thinks there is little reason why the scheme shouldn't pay, especially in the raising of celery. A recent experiment by a Milwaukee firm showed that an acre of celery paid them nine hundred dollars. Spring Brook folks are properly proud of their gardens. As fine an acre of seed onions as is seen in this part of the state, is now being cultivated on the Paul farm by Frank Mead, while N. E. Spicer and W. M. Hinckley have both had early potatoes of unusually large size from their gardens.

L. Cronin has just finished setting out ten acres of tobacco and the plants are a healthy looking lot.

Low Water Hard On Turtles. Old settlers have a saying that water so low as now a turtle can especially through the creeks. Many are taking advantage of it in the way of catching turtles and small fish.

Since the river has taken such a drop, the foul smells now pour forth from numerous places about the Jackson street bridge. It is now plain enough to be seen where local tuffets got in their work dumping rubbish into the river.

Ready For Work on The Bridge. People throughout the addition were more than rejoiced when they noticed numerous tools and a huge iron hammer unloaded at the Jackson street bridge yesterday afternoon. Work will at once be commenced on the structure. A pile of lumber is already on the grounds, and workmen are now figuring on building a huge pile-driver instead of floating one down the river.

Want A Blacksmith Shop. A blacksmith shop is needed in this district if ever a shop was, and a location will be given to the man who will locate a first-class shop here. There is little reason why it shouldn't pay, for the numerous farmers who come into the city this way, prefer to stop here rather than hitch their horses near the street cars.

Trade Boomed By Ball Games. Ball games that have been given at Athletic park, have proven a good thing for grocery stores in this vicinity, and especially so in the recent Clinton-Milton game. A game of base ball was played yesterday afternoon between a picked nine and the Spring Brook Whirlwinds.

Wooden Wedding Next Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cody have issued invitations for a party to be given at their home on James Place next Tuesday evening. The occasion is the celebration of their wooden wedding. Renfield's orchestra will furnish the music.

Tramps at the Burr Robbins Place. A number of tramps were seen to emerge from the empty barns on the Burr Robbins place yesterday morning, and make tracks for Beloit. Numerous windows in the Burr Robbins place have been broken, but probably by small boys.

Attractive Road For Wheelmen. The fine path through the willows, is being much used by bicycle riders, for the path is as hard as a pavement. Riders should take more care in making the short turns. It is a wonder that more accidents haven't occurred.

Hall Factory Will Soon Start Up. The Hall furniture factory which has been shut down for two weeks, is now being put in shape and will start up soon, which pleases the numerous men who are employed there, and make Spring Brook their homes.

Weeds Ready For A Reaper. If Weed Commissioner Clement Noyes was ever needed, it is in the Spring Brook district, for the weeds have taken such a growth that a good sized reaper would be just the thing.

Rig Snake Lay in His Path. While walking through the Paul pasture, W. J. Whitman nearly stepped

THE WEED LAW IS IRON CLAD
Ten Dollar Fines Are Provided For Failure to Observe Its Provisions.

Janesville's new weed commissioner, Clement Noyes, has no easy task before him. The law was amended last winter, the penalties being quite severe upon those who fail to comply. Sections 1 and 2 which point out the duties of property owners and the penalties, read as follows:

Section 1. Every person and corporation shall destroy, upon all lands which he or they shall own, occupy or control, all weeds known as Canada thistle (circium arvense), burdock (appa officinalis), white or ox-eye daisy (leucanthemum vulgare), cockle burr (xanthium strumarium), saw thistle (souchus arvensis), sour dock and yellow dock (rumex crispus), mustard (sinapis arvensis), wild parsnip (thapsium barbinode), and sweet clover (mellilotus alba or mellilotus vulgaris) at such time and in such manner, as shall effectually prevent them from bearing seed. In like manner shall he or they destroy any of the above mentioned weeds, standing, and growing as far as the center of the highways, lanes or alleys, adjoining the lands owned or controlled by him or them.

Section 2. If the occupant of any such land shall fail to so destroy such weeds as so required, after having six days' notice in writing by any commissioner of noxious weeds, such occupant shall be fined five dollars for the first offence and ten dollars for each offence thereafter.

TAKE WARNING, FRIVOLOUS MAIDS.
From Local Sources "Greenhorn" Has Drawn A Lesson Of Prudence.

Oh, frivolous farm girls give ear! Fake warning all of you. Cease to look with kindly eyes on city chaps in creased trousers. A moral lesson full of eloquence is ready for you, fresh from the pen of C. F. Sheriff of Whitewater. "Greenhorn" is Mr. Sheriff's nom de plume.

Under that name he writes a two hundred page book entitled "A Country Girl's Fate or Betrayed By An Imposter." It is a book that should be missed by nobody who takes pleasure in literary construction. Unconventional gems of thought stud its pages and the tragic story of Flora Dickerson's love is emphasized by such moral suggestions as:

Of all the villains on the globe
There's none more steeped in sin,
Than he who dally makes his brags
Of taking ladies in.

"Always speak well of a woman nd remain silent when she gets her ander up and you will have but little trouble with them."
"Ambition and perseverance is the only road to success."

With all the stuff this book contains,
Hoarded up within my brain,
I wonder it did not explode
From carrying such a load.

"The Fate of a Country Girl," is for sale in all book stores or can be had from Donohue & Henneberry of Chicago, for 25 cents a copy. The Gazette assures discriminating readers that a more generous quarter's worth would be hard to find.

Sleeps In A Coffin.

Did you ever stop and reflect? Three fourths of your time is spent in shoes. How very important that you should be properly fitted. It don't pay to buy some body's out-of-date, out-of-style, out of shape shoes, just because they are 50 cents on the dollar of factory cost. You might as well sleep in a coffin as to buy what you don't want, simply because you are told they are cheap. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

BOARD MAY MEET TO TALK OF FUEL

SPECIAL SESSION OF THE SUPERVISORS IS LIKELY.

Committee Appointed To Investigate The Matter Have No Authority To Act, Although They Think Their Plan Should Be Put Into Operation as Soon as Possible.

Another special session of the county board of supervisors is likely to be called to take action on the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the fuel expense at the county asylum and poor house. The special committee, with the building committee and trustees of the asylum, held a meeting at the asylum a few days ago, and made a thorough investigation of the consumption of fuel, as well as other economic questions. One of the members said today that he thought the cheapest thing for the county to do would be to secure the extension of the city water mains and contract with Captain Pliny Norcross to furnish lights.

"If this can be done," said he, "the county will save a large amount of money. I think the whole committee favor making such agreements, but they have no authority to act. I don't know how the members of the board feel, but I am convinced that if they visit the institution and make an investigation, they will favor the change. We cannot do anything more until the report is made to the county board. Perhaps a special meeting may be called to act."

HAS A NEW BROOM CORN MACHINE.
A Janesville Patent That Should Prove A Good Thing.

E. Carter, of Linden avenue, will soon put upon the market a broom corn spudder on which he has been working for eight years. He thinks that he now has the right article. The machine has a lever which at a single stroke cuts the ends of the stock, bands it, and trims it to a required thickness for brooms. The specifications have been in the hands of E. Ray Irman while Civil Engineer O. V. Kerch has done the drawings which will be sent to the patent office at once.

MUST BURN ALL CIGAR REFUSE

United States Marshals Are After the Manufacturers Who Violate the Law.

United States marshals are keeping close tab on the cigar manufacturers, it being claimed that instead of burning the tobacco stems they cannot use, as the law requires, the manufacturers have been giving them away to those who undoubtedly chop them up and find solace in burning incense to the gods without Uncle Sam receiving what he considers his dues.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL NEWS

THERE are people that know a money saving bargain when they see it, and then there are, "others." We should like to have a few moments' private conversation with those "others." CHAT ABOUT LOCAL LEAF MEN

H. B. DeLong is assorting. The call for samples is increasing. TOBACCO sheds suffered from Tuesday's storm.

H. M. THAYER shipped two carloads of '92 this week.

TRIPPING stock is being packed for local dealers. MUCH tobacco has been set this week. Tuesday's showers put the ground in good shape.

EDITOR WILEY estimates the leaf acreage in Wisconsin as over 40 per cent. less than last year. It is the smallest in years.

THERE is still live in the local market. Desirable lots of leaf are being sought by H. B. De Long, T. E. Welsh, Robert Erler and Paul Olson, mainly for L. Weil of New York.

Emerald Grove News.

EMERALD GROVE, June 28.—Emerald Grove will celebrate the Fourth this year with an old-fashioned picnic in Boynton's woods. Games of all kinds, including base ball, will be prominent features. The entire day will be devoted to fun and frolic by old and young, and everybody is bound to have a good time. A good speaker will be in attendance and there will be plenty of music. Come with your friends and enjoy the glorious Fourth of July in this year of our Lord 1895. The most noted social event of the season was the reception given last Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur in honor of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. McArthur of San Francisco. The pleasant lawn was brilliantly illuminated and light refreshments were served to the one hundred guests who were present. Mr. and Mrs. McArthur leave for their western home Saturday. Mrs. Jennie Irwin of Chicago is spending the summer with friends at the Grove.

Perfection Baking Powder.

No article of food is so generally adulterated as baking powder. People ought to be protected against the cheap alum and ammonia baking powders that are flooding the market. Perfection baking powder, however, invites chemists to analyze it and test its purity. This is the powder that constitutes an important part of the Sprague-Warner food exhibit, now being held in Janesville. Try it, if you haven't.

SAID TUFFTS USED MANY VILE WORDS

LIMA MAN'S WIFE COULDN'T STAND IT.

Consequently She Brought an Action For a Divorce, and After Hearing the Testimony, Judge Bennett Concluded That She Deserved One, and Entered the Decree.

Judge Bennett evened up another case of domestic unhappiness yesterday afternoon, when he gave Emma Tufts, of Lima, a legal separation from her husband, Wallace Tufts, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. The testimony of the plaintiff showed that the "cruel and inhuman treatment" was mainly the defendant's vile, vulgar and obscene tongue when drunk, which was outlined as being beyond human endurance. The testimony was strong enough to convince the judge, and a decree of divorce was granted. The parties had no children and no property or which to make a legal contest.

The Only Remedy in the World that Refunds Purchase Price if it Fails to Cure the Tobacco Habit in 4 to 10 Days is

Narcoti-Cure

It Cures while You Continue the Use of Tobacco.

The greatest discovery of the age!
A certain, pleasant, permanent cure.
A lifetime's suffering ended for $5.

Why smoke and spit your life away? Why suffer from dyspepsia, heartburn and drains on your vital forces?
Stop using tobacco, but stop the right way
Drive the nicotine from your system by use of this wonderful remedy.

Narcoti cure is warranted to remove all desire for tobacco in every form, including Cigar, Cigarette and Pipe smoking, Chewing and Snuff Taking.

Use all the tobacco you want while under treatment, and in from four to ten days your "hankering" and "craving" will disappear—the weed won't taste good.
Then throw away tobacco forever.

Narcoti-Cure is entirely vegetable and free from injurious ingredients. It never fails to give tone and new vigor to the weakest constitution.

Remember Narcoti-Cure doesn't deprive you of tobacco while effecting a cure; doesn't ask you to buy several bottles to be entitled to a guarantee; doesn't require a month's treatment; and finally, doesn't enable you to stop tobacco only to find yourself a slave to the habit of tablet chewing.

With Narcoti-Cure, when you are through with tobacco you are through with the remedy. One bottle cures. Send for book of prominent testimonies like the following:

Gentlemen:—I have used tobacco for over twenty-five years, chewing and smoking every day from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. stopping only for meals.

On Monday, February 4, I called at your office in Springfield, and bought a bottle of the Cure which I used as directed and on the tenth day the desire for tobacco had left me and has not returned. I did not lose a meal while taking the cure. My appetite has improved and I consider Narcoti-Cure a grand thing.
Very respectfully,
CHAS. I. LINCOLN.

Mr. Frank H. Morton, of Chicopee Falls, Mass. late Inspector of Public Buildings for Massachusetts, says: I used tobacco for twenty-five years, and was a confirmed smoker. In just eight days' treatment with Narcoti-Cure I was through with tobacco, in fact the desire vanished like a dream.
Very respectfully,

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1847—Emmanuel Marquis Grouchy, marshal of France under Napoleon, died; born 1766.
1852—Henry Clay, American statesman, died at Washington; born 1777. Clay was born in Virginia and emigrated to Kentucky after his admittance to the bar. He was then 20 years old. When Kentucky formed her state constitution, Clay advocated the gradual abolition of slavery. One of his greatest speeches in congress, where he served 13 years, favored the recognition of the South American republics. Clay was thrice candidate for president, the last time in 1844, when he received the Whig vote of several northern and border states, but not enough for election. As an orator he was unequalled in the west and was popularly termed "Kentucky's favorite son." Clay fought a bloodless duel with John Randolph.
1880—The steamer Seawana, carrying 800 passengers, burned off College Point, N. Y., with the loss of 50 lives.
1888—Francis Henry Temple Beloe, the artist, died; born 1827. General Washington L. Elliott died in San Francisco; born 1834.

NEW PARTIES FORMING.

If the new British cabinet, now settling to its work, should fail it will fail brilliantly. There is not a mediocre man in the body—not a man but speaks with the amplest authority on the matters to which he is assigned. Nobody since Bismarck has shown the strength of Lord Salisbury as foreign minister. Even the Irish admit Mr. Balfour to have accomplished more as chief secretary for Ireland than any one of his liberal successors have done. Moreover, his position as leader of the conservatives in the house of commons cured him of his halting speech and made him one of the most brilliant debaters in the kingdom. Mr. Chamberlain is another who is distinguished on the floor as well as in the closet.
Taken all in all the new ministry will be able to show the best that the unionist party can do. And the stress laid upon this word unionists suggests another thing—that the days of conservatives and liberals in England are almost over. Just as Tories changed to conservatives and the liberals grew out of the Whigs so the conservatives and the liberal unionists have now been drawn together in the unionist party, or as it may be known sooner or later, the nationalist. As for the liberals they bid fair to come on the stage next as radicals. That will, of course, not signify the ancient radicalism of Bamford's time, or even that of Mr. Chamberlain's earlier years, but the new spirit, equally anti-monarchical and anti-republican, which has been so rapidly developed in these later years, and which seems disposed half to oppose and half to yield to the socialistic tendencies of the day. Liberalism has become an empty letter. Radicalism is the quickening spirit.

COTTON FACTORIES WON'T MOVE.

In discussing the possibilities of cotton manufacture in the south, many enthusiasts are deluded by the pleasing theory that all industries should center at those points at which their raw materials are obtainable in the greatest abundance and at the lowest cost. It is argued that the only natural and logical site for cotton manufacture is in the midst of the cotton fields, and that the center of the iron industry must inevitably be established in the heart of the great ore beds of the south. Possibly such conditions may be reached when the development of this country shall have been made uniform from coast to coast; but that era is not too far in the future to interest the present generation. In most industries the facilities for marketing products is as important as proximity to sources of supply of raw materials; and the presence of a population that will furnish the necessary labor is also a consideration of prime importance. Woolen manufacturers have no inclination to build factories near the ranches of the west, but still continue to bring their wool half way across the continent; and the cotton manufacturing industry is likely to be grouped around the great shipping and industrial centres of the north, until larger markets, more skilled operatives, greater experience and more abundant capital shall have accumulated in some other section. The cotton fields must pass through many stages of development before cities in the position of Janesville lose control of the loom and the jenny.

WILL THE TOWN GO DRY?

Saloon men say they really ought to make Janesville go dry all through the blazing hot months of summer as a punishment for raising the license. It would serve the town right, they declare, to let it wither up from thirst.

In spite of the talk, however, the man whose thirst demands the addition of coloring matter to his glass of ice water is singularly calm.

Can he believe the saloon keepers are not sincere in their threats? He seems possessed with the idea that closing the saloons during hot weather would cost the saloon keepers considerably worse than their $500 of license money. True enough. As we understand it, however, the question is not one of money but of principle. The skeptical man with a high flavored thirst must bear this in mind and not figure on the action of the Janesville purveyors from the point of view of sordid and mercenary money-grabbing alone.

GOOD TIMES IN MILWAUKEE

The E. P. Allis company has notified its small army of employees of a 10 per cent increase in the wages all around.

The employees were so elated that they immediately ran up the flags from the tops of the buildings. In their joy they did not forget that republican control of the law-making machinery has been a potent factor in restoring prosperity. Democratic voters will be scarcer than ever around the Allis works next year.

The democratic congressional committee is organizing a trust of democratic orators for operations in the northwest. When the trust idea gets a foothold in politics, private electioneering won't be able to hold a candle to syndicate methods.

True a hot weather lock-out by Janesville saloons is promised, but it is not understood that the water company is in combination, and another flowing well has just been tapped. We may not have any deaths from thirst after all.

Throughout the country wages are going up and republicans are becoming more numerous.

FINEST OF VAUDEVILLE COMING.

Living bronzes.
Gotham City Quartette.
Marlo and Dunham, the great bar artists.

The Kinners, the marvelous French equilibriste.
Allen H. Waas, the famous character sketch artist.

Judge family of world famed acrobats.

Tae four Black children, wonderful as comedians and mimics.

A novelty fresh from Paris, "The Ballet Girl as Pupil."

These are a few of the attractions presented by this company, which comes from Exposition Hall in Milwaukee. A week's engagement in the state is to be played while Inne's band is in Milwaukee.

The entire performance is first class in every respect as everybody well knows or it would not be accepted at the Exposition music hall. If the patronage is sufficiently large next Monday Manager Stoddard will be able to secure all the attractions that visit that popular place of amusement. The regular scale of prices will prevail, 25, 50 and 75 cents.

Special attention will be attracted by the living bronzes, the most novel and artistic creation of the century. Their performance set the entire theatrical world agog last winter when it was put on at the Casino in New York. The same act as seen in New York will be given. Fifteen tableaux will be given, some of the groups being exhibitions of great muscular strength on the part of the models. Kins-Ners, the equilibriste, do some startling feats, one being the balancing of a chair containing a full grown woman on a man's chin and balancing six tumblers on a man's chin.

Marlo and Dunham rank among the greatest bar performers in the world, while the Judges, who come directly from Europe, belong to the same class as the Schiefers.

HOSPITAL MAY OPEN, AND VERY SOON, TOO

OAK LAWN DIRECTORS WILL MEET THIS EVENING.

Subject Will Come Up at This Session Many People Think the City Should Help Pay the Bills—City Physicians Invited To Help Devise Ways and Means.

Oak Lawn hospital directors will consider the question of re-opening the hospital at their meeting this evening. The local physicians have been invited to attend the meeting, and an effort will undoubtedly be made to open the institution as soon as possible. There is a general feeling among the people that the hospital should be opened, and also that the city should make an appropriation to assist in paying current expenses, especially for that unfortunate class unable to pay for treatment. Just what the outcome of the meeting will be is not known, but many predict that the institution will be in running order again in the near future.

Arrangements are being made whereby any who expect to attend the grand moonlight excursion given by the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening of next week, July 5 and desire to go late in the afternoon and take their lunch and then join the excursion in the evening can do so without any extra expenses. Remember this and look for further announcements.

Becker & Woodruff.

POLICE KEPT BUSY BY WICKED FOLKS

TRAIN STONED BY BAD MON- TEREY BOYS.

Six Tramps with Strangely Familiar Names, Were Unjustly Accused of the Act—"Dr." Bigelow Is Posted on the Law Relating to Drunks—Other Court Stories.

Sheriff Appleby entertained a distinguished party of gentlemen last night. They were Grover Cleveland, Andrew Jackson, David B. Hill, Richard Olney, John G. Carlisle and Wilson S. Bissell. These six gentlemen were all "hoboes" who were arrested in the C. & N. W. yards yesterday afternoon on the charge of throwing stones at the Rockford passenger train on the St. Paul road. When the train reached the woolen mills a big stone came crashing through one of the windows, striking a traveling man named L. D. Post of New York city. Turnkey North and Marshal George Appleby of Beloit were on the train at the time and the act was thought to be the work of the tramps who were seen in that vicinity, so the Janesville police were notified to take them up and hold them until the return of the train crew. In the meantime, however, Chief Acheson and his "colts" found that the tramps were innocent of the charge and they were liberated. The stones were thrown by two eight-year-old boys who admitted the offence.

"Scored One" On The Court.

There was an amusing scene in the municipal court this morning when Dr. L. P. Biglow, "the man with a broken neck," "called the court down" on a legal point. The "doctor" had pleaded not guilty to a charge of drunkenness and had been convicted.

"I sentence you to the county jail for the period of ten days," said the judge, whereupon the "doctor" jumped to his feet.

"Your honor," he exclaimed, "have the statutes been changed lately? If I am rightly informed a man cannot be sent to jail for ten days for being drunk."

Then they looked up the law and found that the "doctor" was right. Five days is the limit of time a drunk can be sent to jail, but in case the sentence includes a fine and costs which are not paid, the sentence can be prolonged not to exceed fifteen days so they readjusted things on that basis.

James Kelly was also charged with being drunk and was sentenced to one day in jail.

Shrewd Crazy Man Caught

A crazy man who had escaped from Mendota gave Beloit officers a lively chase. Several days ago a physician at that asylum was out driving with the patient and leaving the team hitched went inside. The crazy man took advantage of the opportunity and drove away. The officers gave him a lively chase but he reached Chicago several hours in advance of his pursuers. He sold one horse and a pair of harness before he was captured. The other horse was recovered, but it was impossible to find the harness. The officer drove through Beloit with his man, and stopping went into Pollock's drug store. Then the demented man again broke away, but this time going on foot. Marshal Appleby went in pursuit, capturing him after a chase which created a great deal of excitement.

KENT BLOCK TO BE A BEAUTY

The Plans Show a Handsome Modern Business Edifice.

The plans for the proposed Kent block at the corner of Court and Main streets are about completed, and it promises to be a great addition to that part of the city. The first floor corner will be similar to the Jones block on East Milwaukee street, while a handsome rounding bay window will run from the second story to the roof. Bay windows will also project from the front. The building will be 44 by 60 feet and the specifications call for a store facing on Court street in addition to those opening on Main street.

MANY RACERS AT THE TRACK.

There Is Plenty of Sport at the Park These Mornings.

The Janesville track, which is second to none in the state is seen at its best these fine mornings. The stables that are to appear at the July meet are beginning to arrive. The well known stable of Uhlén Bros., of Milwaukee, is in splendid shape, and Manager J. Greers says that his string were never in better condition for a meeting. H. C. Beckwith's stables are also fitted up handsomely. The horses are now getting used to the Janesville track, and Trainer Robert Cornathan says there is no better course in the country. The horses are taken out as early as six o'clock for their morning's work. The well known 4-year-old Valencia of the Beckwith string went a mile going the last quarter at a 2:13 clip. The track is being sprinkled evenings and rolled until now it is in as good shape as it has been in years.

THIRTY-NINE APPLY FOR $500 LICENSES

AGREEMENT ENTIRELY DIS- OWNED THIS AFTERNOON.

Names of the Men Who Paid Their Money—Vexed Because the Closing Up Plan Was Made Public—Attorney Hyzer Denies That He Counseled Such a Course.

Thirty-nine Janesville saloon-keepers broke the "secret agreement" in a body at half past 3 o'clock this afternoon and applied for license with the receipt of City Treasurer Fethers attached, showing that $500 had been paid into the treasury. They were:

Adam Holt, William Bahr, Herman Kath, James Ennis, James Dee, William Fathers, Peter Dolan, James Condon, Leopold Kaesters. At the same time twenty-one others had made out their applications, but and holding on to their money until Monday, they being F. C. Stillson, McKelgie & Worthington, L. L. Leffingwell, J. H. Donahue, I. F. Connors, Elmer F. Maine, Patrick McShane, Bauman & Beyers, William Berges, Philip Reus, Boots & Murphy, H. Mullenblader, Boub & Beneke, James Sennett, O. E. Smith, N. B. Robinson & Co., William Hemming, Fred E. Jones, M. H. Fardy, J. Ryan and James Dalton.

City Treasurer Fethers estimates that at least forty-five applications will be presented to the council in regular form Monday night.

Mad About "That Leak."

Janesville saloon keepers, or some of them were much annoyed when they read The Gazette last night and found that the subject of their deliberations had leaked out.

"Who told you that some of them had paid the $500?" demanded one of the dealers when he met a Gazette reporter last night. The interrogation was fired with considerable force and the propounder was evidently somewhat vexed.

"Well, they did pay didn't they?"

"Not a xy3pgrt one of them has paid! Why in x3y!! don't you find out whether a thing is right or not before you print it?"

"So you don't believe eight of them paid up as stated in the paper?"

"Of course not! How do you know they did?"

"Well, for one thing, I saw the money in City Treasurer Fethers' hands," replied the reporter, "and the application and bonds are now on file at the city clerk's office where you can see them for yourself."

The saloon man subsided abruptly. He declared that the men all agreed to hang together and abide by the "alleged agreement" as Mr. Hyzer calls it, and was much disgusted to find that a double quartette had taken the back track in the matter.

Mr. Hyzer denies that he had anything to do with the agreement which his clients made. He writes this note:

EDITOR GAZETTE—Please correct the statement you made last night with reference to my opinion and advice on the liquor question. I gave no such advice or opinion. Respectfully, EDWARD M. HYZER

VASSAR PIE.

Give me a spoon of oleo, ma,
And the sodium alkali,
For I'm going to make a pie, mamma,
I'm going to make a pie,
For John will be hungry and tired, ma,
And his tissues will decompose,
So give me a gram of phosphate
And the carbon and cellulose.

Now give me a chunk of casein, ma,
To shorten the thermic fat,
And hand me the oxygen bottle, ma,
And look at the thermostat,
And if the electric oven's cold
Just turn it on half an ohm,
For I want to have supper ready
As soon as John comes home.

Now pass me the neutral dope, mamma,
And rotate the mixing machine,
But give me the sterilized water first
And the oleomargarine,
And the phosphate, too, for now I think
The new typewriter's quit,
And John will need more phosphate food
To help his brain a bit.

ANDREANO.

"Halt! Close up, there!"

The order rang out sharply, echoing from rock to rock, and seeming to die away in hollow murmurs up the precipitous and bleak sides of the hills. The little band of Italian soldiery closed up rapidly as their grizzled old captain spoke and faced him silently with their carbines grounded and the look of dull and apathetic discipline on their faces that is characteristic of their class.

"My men," said the weather beaten and gray headed leader, regarding them sharply from under his shaggy eyebrows, "the wolf is driven to his last lair. All, or nearly all, of his people have been killed off during the weeks that we have been following them over these dreary hills. He—the bandit, the robber, the Andreano of the hills—cannot last out longer now. His hour is come, if we are but watchful. Up and up he has been driven, often nearly falling into our hands, yet as often escaping. Now, behind him rises the sheer straight line of the hills, on either side are two good companies of our men; we stand in the front. The great Andreano, terror of our hills—the captain laughed softly in his throat—"is already as one dead. You know your orders; he is to be shot down like a dog by the first man who sights him. You understand?"

A low, deep murmur went up from the men, and then a single voice spoke; the speaker, who stood in the front rank, giving the salute rapidly.

"But, my captain, what of the child?" The old man turned on him fiercely.

"The child! What child?" The soldier—a little, lithe, swarthy man, with gleaming white teeth shining under his brown mustache—saluted again.

"The child, my captain, he brought from Massafino, below there in the valley. The child of the woman who had loved him."

The captain, interested in spite of himself, knitted his brows and bade the soldier proceed.

"What of this child? You may speak." Thus encouraged, the little man with the gleaming teeth saluted once more, and with many a gesture of fingers, shoulders and eyebrows rapidly told his story.

"'Twas but a year ago, my captain. The woman—I know not her name—had loved him in the days when he was a lad tilling the fields down there. She was alone. Her friends were dead or had left her. There was no one but the priest who could help her, and the priest was too poor. What would you?" with an appealing glance at his fellows and a rapid shrug of his shoulders. "She had been married—this woman who had loved the Andreano—and had a child, a girl child, but her man lay in the sandy graveyard over against the village church yonder, dead, a year before, of the fever. So she sent to Andreano."

He paused for a moment, spat quickly upon the ground and went on again.

"She sent a message to him up here in the hills, my captain, and he came to her. He came down in the night and saw her; came, armed to the teeth, and daring all or any to touch him. And in the morning, when the sun was coming up over the hills, he had gone, and the child with him, and the woman who had loved him lay dead, with a smile on her face. That is all, my captain."

The man saluted again and drew back.

"And the child—where is it now?" asked the captain slowly.

"The child is with him, my captain." "What matters it?" muttered the captain. "Kill the child too. Kill off the whole brood. Come, we waste time. Forward!"

Yet for all that, as the captain marched at the head of his men with knitted brows, he was very silent and very thoughtful and might almost have been thought to have been in doubt. Once or twice he shook his head slowly and muttered something beneath his breath. He, too, had heard the strange story at an earlier time—had heard how this terrible and sin stained man, with a price upon his head, had gone down into the valley—into the midst of men ready and willing to sell him—carrying his life in his hand, to see a peasant woman who had sent for him; he had heard, too, how the robber had carried the child into the hills and had carefully tended it there ever since.

It was late in the afternoon when the little company drew near the end of its quest, and, with leveled carbines, crept silently on amid the rocks that lay strewn about the place. Suddenly one man—the little soldier with the gleaming teeth, who had spoken before—cried out sharply:

"See, my captain, he comes—with the child!"

It was true; even as they looked they saw an active, picturesque figure spring from rock to rock toward them, bearing on its shoulders a laughing, crowing, dark haired child. One hand of the man held the baby, the other grasped a carbine, and the late afternoon sun gleamed on the weapons in his belt. They saw, too, that the baby had, fastened lightly to one chubby fist, a fluttering white cloth. Seeing them, the man stood quite still watching them, only the white cloth fluttering in the wind.

"A flag of truce!" grunted the captain, sharply calling a halt—he was too true a soldier not to regard such a sign. "What does he want, I wonder? Lower your arms there, men, there is plenty of time," he added grimly.

The robber came on again rapidly and finally halted a little distance above them, with the baby still perched upon his shoulder. Then he, too, lowered his carbine and stood there, with head up-raised, looking at them defiantly.

"You have me!" he cried at last, his voice ringing out clearly through the still air. "You have tracked me up here—you, a hundred against one man. Yet, even now, you should not have taken me calmly thus, even though I stand alone—you should not have taken me thus, but for the little one."

He glanced up for a moment at the baby on his shoulder and drew one little hand down to his lips, and then faced the soldiery again, speaking directly for the first time to the old officer:

"You are a brave man, captain," he added almost appealingly, "and such men do not make war on infants. What do you do with the little one, my captain?"

The captain shrugged his shoulders. "The child is nothing, Andreano," he said sternly. "She may die with you." With a bound the bandit had sprung back from them, and in an instant the child was off his shoulder and behind him, and he knelt there with his carbine leveled, fiercely facing them.

"Beasts!" he cried. "I come to you under the white flag, well knowing that I must die, and asking nothing for myself. I crave only that you should spare the innocent little one. Know this, then, since you will not—I will kill the child rather than she shall fall beneath your murderous blows, and will die such a death as few men have died, with a dozen coward souls to bear mine own to hell. Now, what say you?"

He knelt there quite calmly, with his carbine leveled and with the child thrust behind him. But the old captain had stepped forward and raised his hand. "Stop, Andreano!" he cried. "You are right. We make no war on babes. This hunting down of one man is but little to my liking, and I will not foul it more. The child is safe."

The man rose and laid down his carbine and took up the child again.

"And the little one shall go with you down into the valley in safety?" he asked slowly.

"I have given my word. No harm shall come to the little one. Give it to me."

The robber kissed the baby's soft face passionately—once, twice, thrice—and then moved quickly toward the captain, down the rocks, and passed the child into his arms.

"I thank you, my captain," he said gravely. "And now you are to shoot me?"

"Such are our orders, Andreano."

The other shrugged his shoulders. "So be it," he said softly, "only cover the face of the little one that she may not see."

The captain passed the child into the hands of the little soldier of the swarthy face, and they took it quickly out of his sight. Then came an order rapidly given and another; a volley rang out startling the echoes on those lonely hills for a moment; there was a half sobbing cry and Andreano's course was run.

So it came about that when the soldiers marched down into the valley again one of them bore upon a light pole the head of the notorious bandit, for all the wide eyed peasantry to gaze at, and, strangest sight of all, upon the front of the captain's saddle, with the captain's arm about her, sat a laughing, crowing, dark haired baby.—Firefly.

Bacteriology of the Sea.

Dr. B. Fischer, bacteriologist of the 1894 Plankton expedition, in his report on the "Microbes of the Sea," says that microbes capable of germination are everywhere to be found in sea water except at great depths. They are more numerous in the Canary, Florida and Labrador currents than they are in either the Guinea or equatorial currents. They were not detected with certainty in the ooze of the ocean's bed, but were abundant at all depths shallower than 1,300, and some were found at a depth of 3,500 feet. Like the bacteria of the different diseases, those of the ocean are found in all shapes and forms, the spiral predominating. Nearly all were found provided with hooks or suckers, and one large family are reported as being phosphorescent.

Reduced Rates to Baltimore.

On account of the meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union at Baltimore, July 18 to 21, the B. & O. R. Co. will place on sale at all ticket stations on its lines west of the Ohio river, excursion tickets at one fare for the round trip. These tickets will be sold July 16 and 17, valid for return passage until August 5. The rate from Chicago will be $17.50 and proportionately low rates from other points. Tickets will also be placed on sale at all coupon offices west of Chicago.

Whatever point you start from be sure your ticket reads via B. & O. In addition to the county through which the B. & O. runs, the B. & O. is the only line from Chicago to Baltimore running via Washington, a double daily service of fast express trains run between the west and east.

For full particulars address L. S. Allen, A. G. P. A., Grand Central Station, Chicago.

There is great danger in neglecting cholera, colic and similar complaints. An absolutely prompt and safe cure is found in DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. C. D. Stevens.

Fourth of July Rates.

On July 3 and 4 the Northwestern Line will sell excursion tickets at low rates to local stations within two hundred miles, good for return passage until July 5, 1895, inclusive. For tickets and full information apply to agents Chicago & Northwestern Railway.

The most pleasant little pills for regulating the bowels, are Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers. Cure sick headache and constipation. Small pill. Small dose. C. D. Stevens.

Two Great Excursions to Boston.

Via the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Ry., one in July and one in August. One fare for the round trip. Stop over at Niagara Falls and Saratoga if desired; also by boat one way between Albany and New York at the option of the passenger. Stop can also be made at Chautauqua on return trip. Regular summer tourists tickets to the many delightful mountain, lake and seaside resorts of the east are now on sale. Complete list of rates and rates with any further information desired will be promptly furnished on application. M. S. Giles Pass. Agt., Chicago.

BETTER THAN A GOLD MINE.

Last month I cleared, after paying all expenses, $235.38; the month before $188.86 and have at the same time attended to my regular business. I believe anyone, anywhere, can do as well, as I have not a particularly good location and not much experience. When you have an article that every family wants, it is very easy selling it. It seems strange that a good, cheap dish washer was never before placed on the market. With the Perfection, which sells for $5 you can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without putting the hands in water. As soon as people see the washer work, they want one, and that is why so much money can be made so quickly. For full particulars address The Perfection Mfg. Co. Station O, Englewood, Ill. I feel convinced that any lady or gentleman, in any location can make $5 to $10 a day, as every family will very soon have a dish washer. Try it and publish your experience for the benefit of others. ALICE O.

Christian Endeavor Excursion to Boston.

For the above event the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell excursion tickets at half fare, over any eastern line, on July 5 and 8. Tickets limited to 30 days. Going one route and returning over another route adds slightly to the cost of tickets and varies according to routes chosen. Information as to this matter may be obtained at the ticket office of the C. M. & St. P. Ry. Our 9:55 a. m. train makes connection at Chicago with all eastern trains. Reservations in sleepers secured in advance.

There is one medicine that will cure immediately. We refer to Dr. Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure for all summer complaints. No delay, no disappointment, no failure. C. D. Stevens.

National Encampment at Denver, Colorado.

Excursion tickets at half-fare, plus $2, for the round trip, will be sold to Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou or Pueblo, Colorado, on July 4, 5 and 6, good for return up to and including July 15, and can, if desired, be extended to return, up to September 1, by depositing ticket with joint agent at either of above points. Apply at ticket office of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway for tickets over any route, and necessary information.

A Poor Likeness.

Here is a good story illustrative of the prosaic nature on which art makes no impression:

In Westminster abbey there is a large marble tablet in memory of a famous bishop. It is a bas-relief, representing the bishop—a portrait—in the agony of death, sinking into the arms of an allegorical female figure, presumably intended for the angel of death.

It is said that an aged couple from the country were being shown round the abbey, and pausing long before the tablet the old lady remarked to her husband:

"That's a good likeness of the bishop, but," regarding the angelic personage attentively, "it's a very poor one of Mrs. —. I knew her well, and she didn't look like that."—Boston Traveller.

The Fat's in the Fire.

"The fat's in the fire," indicating that an enterprise has suffered disaster, is found in very old English times. The metaphors, of course, drawn from the sight, familiar enough at hog killing time, of lard being melted from the fat portions of the carcass, the upsetting of the vessel causing the loss of the melted fat. By a figure of speech, fat is supposed to indicate good luck or wealth, and the "fat's in the fire" was synonymous with the failure of a promising enterprise.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

In all its stages completely eradicated by S.S.S. Obsolete sores and ulcers yield to its healing powers. It removes the poison and builds up the system. Valuable treatise on the disease and its treatment mailed free. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Persons who are subject to diarrhoea will find a speedy cure in De Witt's Colic and Cholera cure. Use no other. It is the best that can be made or that money can procure. It leaves the system in natural condition after its use. We sell it. C. D. Stevens.

Low Rates to Boston.

The B. & O. R. Co. will sell round trip tickets from all points on its lines west of the Ohio River to Boston and return, for all trains July 5th and 9th, inclusive; valid for return passage until July 23, with privilege of an additional extension until July 31, if desired. Tickets will also be placed on sale at all prominent points in the North and Northwest. The rate from Chicago will be $22.00, and correspondingly low rates low rates from other points.

A double daily service of fast express trains is maintained from Chicago to all points in the East. Tourists will also bear in mind that all B. & O. trains between the East and West run via Washington. For full particulars write L. S. Allen, A. G. P., Agent, Chicago.

Travelers find a safe companion in De Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure. A change in drinking water and diet often causes severe and dangerous complaints. This medicine always cures them. C. D. Stevens.

You Don't Have to Swear Off

says the St. Louis Journal of Agriculture in an editorial about No-To-Bac the famous tobacco habit cure. "We know of many cases cured by No-To-Bac, one, a prominent St. Louis architect, smoked and chewed for twenty years; two boxes cured him so that even the smell of tobacco makes him sick." No-To-Bac sold and guaranteed by E. B. Heimstreet. No cure, to pay. Book free. Sterling Remedy Co., New York or Chicago.

We recommend De Witt's Colic and Cholera cure because we believe it is a safe and reliable remedy. Its good effects are shown at once in cases of cholera morbus and similar complaints. C. D. Stevens.

When occasion demands its use, try De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is cooling to burns, stops pain instantly, cleanses, a perfect healer for scalds or skin eruptions. Always cures piles. C. D. Stevens.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth,

Be sure and use that old and well tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

The Point of the Pistol is an effective persuader, and there are many persons so unimpaired of the symptoms of oncoming disease that it would almost take that deadly argument to induce them to adopt precautionary measures. The best of these is a recourse to that fine botanic restorer, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It conquers malaria, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, falling digestion, biliousness, and irregularity of the bowels, and completely fortifies the system against their further inroads. Its ingredients are drawn from nature's storehouse, consequently it is free from the objections attaching to many absolutely or semi-mineral remedies. For the delicate, infirm, convalescent and elderly it is peculiarly beneficial. It will merit continuous and systematic use. Take it at bed time to induce sleep, and between meals to stimulate appetite and digestion. The medical fraternity concur in endorsing it.

Excursion Rates for July 4.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell excursion tickets to all points on its lines within two hundred miles, on July 3 and 4, at a fare and third for the round trip; good on return until and including, July 5.
